Reading is #1

National
Family Literacy
Month[®]

Need fresh ideas to encourage your children to read at home? November is National Family Literacy Month. With winter closing in, it's a great time to start new habits to encourage reading at home, or spark new interests in reading for all members of the family.

Check out ECA's Learning in Action video, "Reading to children is #1," at www.ECAAlliance.org (click on Families/Learning in Action/Reading to children is #1).

Make a Difference

December often awakens the spirit of giving. It is a great time for the family to come together and do something to help those in need. Children learn from "doing." Check out ECA's wish list at www.ECAAlliance.org (click on Make a Difference/In kind items and supplies donations) or www.smile.amazon.com (search for Early Childhood Alliance under "Find a List or Registry").
